

Do you support creating a housing safety net to protect Canadians from the impacts of economic shock?

YES

Do you support developing a housing skills agenda for Canada that equips our workforce and empowers them to recruit skilled trade workers?

YES

Do you support initiatives to support first-time home buyers, like the Home Buyer's Plan (HBP) and the First-Time Home Buyer Incentive (FTHBI)?

YES

Do you support reviewing tax reforms to facilitate home building, for example, eliminating GST on all housing?

YES

Do you support streamlining permissions to facilitate home building?

YES

Do you support creating resilient housing material supply chains that can withstand tariffs and trade barriers?

YES

Do you support the stimulation of housing supply by embracing innovation through offsite construction technologies, some of which include mass timber, panelization, and modular home construction?

YES

John-Paul Danko
Hamilton West-Ancaster-Dundas

OPTIONAL

Would you like to provide additional comments on the answers you have provided above?

The Liberal government has committed to housing policies that will see the creation of 500,000 new housing units per year moving forward, cutting GST for first-time home buyers, and reducing development charges for new builds.

OPTIONAL

This last question gives you an opportunity to tell us more about your thoughts on housing. You decide what you would like us to share with our members.

I am concerned about the ability of the next generation to afford a home to raise their own family. The average cost of a home in Hamilton or a rental unit is beyond the ability of many Hamiltonians to afford.

The Liberal Government will get back into the business of investing in housing, supporting the skilled trades and innovative manufacturing needed to build housing and working with all levels of government to ensure that the policies are in place to streamline the construction of new housing as quickly as possible.