This last question gives you an opportunity to tell us more about your thoughts on housing. You decide what you would like us to share with our members.

I recently met a young couple in Elmira who are expecting their first child. They both work good paying full-time jobs but have been priced out of the housing market. They are living in a shared space, worried about how they'll find the room to raise a child.

As I meet more and more folks at the doors, I am learning that this couple's story isn't at all unique, and it underscores how broken the housing system has become. Everyone deserves the security of a stable home and it's clear it's time for federal leadership that will finally put people first. That's a fight I am committed to bringing to Ottawa for our community.
